FUEL is deeply grateful to those who sent large shipments of food for the grocery bags this week. Please keep the groceries coming. The need is great. THANK YOU!

See below for another way to attend a concert and make a donation to FUEL!

Save the Date!
A Concert to Benefit the FUEL Program

The Redeemer community is warmly invited to attend a concert by Duo Gwynne, a flute and viola duo of Redeemer parishioners Long Okada and Nicholas Southwick. Duo Gwynne holds the Artist Fellowship for Music for Food, and all proceeds raised at this performance will benefit Redeemer's FUEL program. Here are the details:

The Storms of Elegance*

April 13, 2024, 7pm

Carriage House Violins Boston Showroom, 236 Huntington Ave Suite 301, Boston, MA 02115

*The Storms of Elegance seeks to paint a portrait of the lives and works of five composer-performers who shaped the musical landscape at the turbulent turn of the 19th century in Europe. Voices of Joseph Bologne Chevalier de Saint-Georges, François Devienne, Maddalena Lombardini-Sirmen, Friedrich Dülön, and Joseph Martin Kraus will be placed center stage and celebrated for their contributions to music in the Classical Era.

Vestry Dinners for the Parish

We are pleased to announce the return of our Vestry Dinners, events hosted by Vestry members, as an opportunity for adults to gather for fun and fellowship over a meal as we continue the process of rebuilding and strengthening our faith community in the wake of COVID.

After Easter, parishioners will receive an email asking you to select one or more of six dates in the Spring that work for your schedule. Sign-up sheets will also be posted on the bulletin board outside the church office. Once we determine the groupings, we will notify you as to which Vestry Dinner you'll be attending.

If you have any questions, come find us at Coffee Hour on Sunday or email us.

Lighten our Darkness: a Presentation on Evensong

This month, we are pleased to share Lighten our Darkness by Nigel Potts. His presentation can also be found on the Home Page of the website.

Seeking Redeemer Oral Histories

A small group of parishioners are currently researching the Redeemer's almost 140 years of history. We believe that knowing our past is important to understanding our present and planning for our future. We are interested in collecting oral histories, including "small stories," from parishioners. If you have stories or memories to share, please contact Rev. Mike Danaelo or Debbv Mills.

April Fellowship Calendar

After some great March Fellowship program, the Church Service League moves into Eastertide with several April events that we hope will appeal to parishioners of all ages and persuasions.

April 7: Redeemer Forum: Our Church History Comes to Life. Following Sunday Evensong, our monthly Redeemer Forum will feature a presentation by the Redeemer History Team concerning their research into Redeemer's history, providing a peek at the liturgical items that adorn our beautiful worship services and the people that gifted them to us! Learn about who they were and who they loved, and ponder how we are still inspired by them.

April 17: Next Chapters: Our Favorite Things. Summer is coming and with it our hopes and plans for time away with the family. Let's share our favorite places, whether they be a quiet lake in Maine; a trout stream in Montana or the South of France. Attendees are encouraged to send 5 to 10 photos of their favorite place to michael.aylward4@gmail.com for a video montage as we share a delicious lunch in the Porter Room between 12 and 1:30 p.m.

April 21: Readeemers: In the wake of our recent consideration of David Brooks' How to Know a Person, our newly rechristened Reading Group is shifting back to fiction. Following Evensong on April 21, we will gather in the Old Parish House to discuss "Salvation" by Langston Hughes. Salvation is a 1940 autobiographical story by Hughes in which a 13 year old boy is pressured by his Pentecostal congregation to accept Jesus as his savior. What does his story tell us about our own struggle to communicate with God?

AND COMING SOON TO A CHURCH NEAR YOU!

May 5: THREE B's PARTY: BBQ, Bluegrass (and a Bishop!) Following on last January's insanely fun chili night, we will gather at 6 p.m. on Cinco de Mayo for a celebration of BBQ and homegrown flatpicking bluegrass. Oh and yes, Father Mike has invited Bishop Gates to join us to share in some excellent beef brisket and pulled pork and offer us a few thoughts as he nears the end of his term as our Bishop. Parishioners are encouraged to bring their favorite BBQ sides.

Change of Date for the April 6th Dance Party

The April 6th Christmas Market Auction Item (Dance the Night Away) at the home of Eric and Julia Woodard has been rescheduled for May 11th, by which time we hope that the weather will have improved. Details to follow.
