Faith through Fiction Suggestions

Can you recommend any works of fiction in which elements of faith and spirituality appear though are not necessarily the main theme?

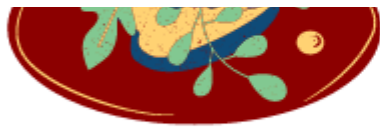

Faith through Fiction is a group that enjoys reading and meeting to discuss books, short stories, novels and poetry, so any recommendations along those lines would be warmly welcomed, as would you!

Please email Suzannah Bodley with your suggestions!

MARCH
16th & 17th

COMMON CATHEDRAL'S MISSION IS TO BUILD RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN HOUSED AND UNHOUSED COMMUNITIES, SO WE NEED REDEEMER FAMILIES TO HELP IN THIS MISSION BY DONATING ITEMS, MAKING SANDWICHES, AND DELIVERING THEM TO COMMON CATHEDRAL AND PARTICIPATING IN THE COMMON CATHEDRAL LITURGY.

Please help the unhoused by purchasing lunch contributions, making sandwiches and attending a worship service with the Common Cathedral community on March 16th and 17th.

Sign up HERE to participate.

CELEBRATE THIS EASTER WITH A DONATION OF EASTER LILIES

The beautiful lilies which adorn the Church of the Redeemer at Easter are made possible by many financial donations from our parishioners.

Names which are received by March 17th will be printed in the Easter worship service leaflets. We suggest $50 for the first listing, $10 for each additional one, but ANY AMOUNT is welcome.

Please make your check payable to Church of the Redeemer. Thank you.

You can fill out the Lily donation form here or pick up a form in the Narthex or near the church offices and return it to the Church office or by mail c/o Suzy Westcott, 379 Hammond St. Chestnut Hill, MA 02467.

March Fellowship Events

In the hope that Lent is not so much about giving up things as opening ourselves to the life of the spirit in anticipation of the coming of Easter, we have programmed several Fellowship events that we hope will spark your interest.

PAINTED PRAYERS: The Spirit Revealed Sunday, March 10th, 6-7 p.m. Parish Hall

Art and religion have long enjoyed a symbiotic relationship. While religion is a source of inspiration to many artists, great religious art is an inspiration to us in our own practice of faith. As part of our Lenten series, Nina Moriarty will lead a discussion of how artists have depicted prayer as a window into the spiritual realm of faith. Her lecture will include manuscript illustrations from the Middle Ages, Medieval altarpieces and paintings of people at prayer from the early Renaissance through the modern era. Snacks and refreshment will be provided.

GORE PLACE BOOK SALE Friday and Saturday, March 8-9

As sure as crocuses and spring training, the annual Gore Place book sale/fundraiser is a sure sign of the coming of Spring. Bargains abound and it's a lovely opportunity to visit this unique early 19th Century mansion in nearby Waltham.

REDEEMER CONCERT SERIES-Skylark Friday, March 15 at 7 p.m.

Skylark returns to Redeemer this month along with award-winning storyteller Sarah Walker for an exciting adventure on the high seas! Featuring sea shanties, siren songs, and poetry about life on the water. Tickets are available here and on Skylark's website.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BUILD DAY
Saturday, March 16 Malden Site

Join Father Mike ("The Hammer") Dangelo and your friends and fellow parishioners for a day of fun and bruised thumbs as we continue our construction work on a five unit affordable housing project that Habitat is building in Malden. Our group is limited 10, so sign up now.

COMMON CATHEDRAL
Saturday, March 16 and Sunday, March 17

Join us at 9 a.m. on Saturday morning in the Parish Hall to make sandwiches that we will serve on the Boston Common on Sunday afternoon in communion with Common Cathedral, a unique institution of fellowship and faith that nourishes the spirit and bodies of Boston's unhoused population.

FAITH THROUGH FICTION READING GROUP
Sunday, March 17th, 6-7 p.m. OPH

Our Sunday evening reading group will resume its discussion of David Brooks' engrossing new discussion of the epidemic of loneliness and how we can each become illuminators that transform our own lives and those of others. This month, we will be discussing Chapters 10 to 13, in which Brooks recounts how we respond to the loss of friends and loved ones and the role of empathy in coming to terms with grief.

NEXT CHAPTERS MONTHLY LUNCHEON
Wednesday, March 20th at the home of Anne and John Grandin, 12-2pm

Next Chapters will hold its monthly luncheon at Noon on March 20 at the home of Anne and John Grandin. This month we will discuss The Great Dechurching, a recent study by two sociologists about why so many Americans are abandoning organized religion. As discussed in a recent article in The Washington Post, the median congregation in the United States stood at 65 people, down from 137 two decades ago. A recent Pew survey predicts that "nones" may comprise 50% of the U.S. population by 2070. Why is this happening and what are its implications for our own faith. Lunch will be served, so please RSVP Fellowship chair/chef Michael Aylward no later than March 19.
