The Mission of St. Stephen's Youth Program: Equity, Employment, Relationships

In the aftermath of the pandemic and the departure of its Executive Director, Rev. Tim Crellin, St Stephen's Youth Program (SSYP) is continuing to try to meet its mission more closely: building equity, employment, and relationships. They are seeking to move from a faith-based charity model to a more socially activist justice model of partnership.

SSYP is asking any volunteer who participates in B-SAFE this summer to participate in four workshops dedicated to combatting racism. These sessions will utilize the Sacred Ground Curriculum, and the workshops are scheduled for four consecutive Tuesdays: April 26th, May 3rd, May 10th, and May 17th from 7PM to 8:15pm. SSYP leadership requires that all B-SAFE volunteers attend ALL workshops; these workshops are also open to anyone. To register, please follow this link: HERE. The workshops will be happening on Zoom and a link will be sent to all registrants on Monday before the workshop series begins.

If you have any questions at all about how you can become involved with SSYP, please email Dan McCarthy at dan.mccarthy@comcast.net or Maisie Pollard at maisiepollard@gmail.com. Thank you for your consideration and support!

Groceries for Families in Need

FUEL volunteers pack and deliver hundreds of bags of groceries every week and we rely on your donations of food and your help packing the bags.

Please sign up here to sort and pack when you can. Backup delivery drivers are also always welcome, and if you'd like a one-time project, even something you could do at home as a family, just let me know. Thank you!

Seeking New Residents for Trinity House Supported by the Redeemer's Strategic Ministries

Trinity House in Newton Centre is an intentional community of BC grad students, that has openings for next year!

Trinity House grew from a collaboration of Trinity Newton Centre, Redeemer, ECBC, and the Episcopal non-profit Creche (The Charles River Episcopal Co-Housing Endeavor). Creche plants and supports intentional communities in partnership with Episcopal parishes, and Trinity House is one of its three current communities. Each home establishes its own rhythms and covenant within the framework of Creche's covenant of communal living. If you are interested in learning more about Trinity House, intentional communities, or Creche, contact Jeff@creche.community or Megan at Megan.holding@bc.edu.

Join Barrie Rose next week for Embodied Prayer
Wednesday, May 4, 5:30-6:30pm & Thursday, May 5, 10:30-
11:30am in the Undercroft

Sela is an embodied prayer class inspired by the western spiritual tradition. It longs to retrieve and bring into the 21st century "secular age" the riches of the Christian contemplative tradition to the common person who longs for a deeper connection to his/her depths as well as the heights of transcendence. We long for these riches (embodied prayer postures and contemplative methods etc.) to be a light to a western world that is dying for spiritual food, bodily connection, human community, and psychological healing.

The class is held Wednesdays from 5:30-6:30pm and Thursdays from 10:30-11:30am in the undercroft of the church. We have our base flow/curriculum based on the Christian theologian St. Dominic's (1170-1221) Nine Ways of Prayer.

Everyone is welcome (12 and up) please bring comfortable exercise clothes (since the class is movement-based) as well as a heart open to engage God in prayer in and through the body and breathe. If you have a yoga mat you would like to bring feel free to bring it, we also have Sela mats, blocks, and straps available on site.

Barrie Rose is teaching the Sela class. She has a background in dance as well as in teaching ballet, she is a certified yoga instructor (trained in Nepal) and has a master's degree in spirituality (from Boston College).

Sunflowers for Ukraine As your sunflower seeds germinate and grow during Eastertide, please continue to gather your family and say the prayer below in support of the Ukrainian people. If you would like some sunflower seeds and a pot, please email Anne Grandin.

Rev. Mike Dangelo's Prayer

Dear God, Ruler of the Nations and Prince of Peace,

We give you thanks for the good earth warmed by the coming of spring and the gentle rains which water it. We thank you for these seeds which hold within themselves the secret life that will soon break forth into holy light. As we plant these seeds we remember before you the people of Ukraine who claim this flower as a symbol of their nation. We ask you, Gracious Lord, to break the sword of war in their land. and restore the homes and lives destroyed in violence. May these flowers bloom, and in them may we know the hope of your risen Son our savior Jesus Christ in whose name we pray. Amen.
